Bishop Tookes spoke of a poem written by Dr. H. M. Mickens and bought himself 50 of them and gave to the old sisters of the congregation and permitted the sale of them to the amount of $17.80.

Bishop Tookes read Joshua 1st chapter and urged that we send the Coal Fund to his office Monday after Easter and proceeded to read the appointments in a unique way, having the presiding elder and pastors of each district to assemble around the altar to receive their appointments.

Doxology. Benediction, Bishop H. Y. Tookes.

Whereas, Rev. J. J. Brooks has given his cooperation in helping with the entertainment, Committee: D. R. FRANK and F. D. HALL.

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 11, 1939.

Whereas, The age in which we now live is filled with many vicissitudes, and that we are far away from yesterday, and the ox cart period is almost gone, and today it is speed and rapidity, where men are flying above the clouds into the relays and aeroplane, having their dinner on the bottom of the Atlantic in submarines, and

Whereas, The Divine Providence has sent to the Central Florida Conference, the Bishop H. Y. Tookes, D.D., LL.D., as its presiding officer; also to preside over the Eleventh Episcopal district, and

Whereas, He has presided over this thirty-ninth session of our conference with so much dignity and impartiality to the extent that peace and harmony reigns in our conference,

Whereas, His loving heart went out for those missionary men farthest down in the trenches in the great African Methodist church, giving justice to all and safeguarding the laws of our church, be it

Resolved, That we join hands with twenty-nine presiding elders, 700 preachers and forty-nine thousand members and march on to victory in October next, with our faces beaming with the refulgent rays of the sunlight of success and with his plans the indebtedness lifted from Edward Waters college, the excellency of African Methodism in Florida.

Your committee,

D. R. FRANK

F. D. HALL, Chairman.

ON DEEDS AND ABSTRACTS

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 11, 1939.

Bishop and brothers of Central Florida Conference:

We have in hand a deed from Stuart Brothers Corporation, party first part, to Grant Gray, Lee Jones and John Simmons, trustees of Mt. Zion A. M. E. church.

We find that the Deed is not properly executed according to the laws found in the Book of Discipline, governing our church, namely, the words to the trustees of the A. M. E. church and their successors in office, should be inserted. The Deed is to a parcel of land lying in the County of Polk, State of Florida, Bartow; Lot No. 6, second block in Washington Park.—We recommend that the Deed be recorded and the words successors in office be written in the Deed.

Your committee:

F. D. HALL, Chairman.

ON TEMPERANCE

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 10, 1939.

To the bishop and members of the Conference. Greetings:

We, your committee on Temperance, beg leave to submit the following report:

When we consult Webster's dictionary for a definition of the word, "Temperance", we find the following: (1) Habitual moderation in the indulgence of the appetite and passion; (2) Abstinence from the use of intoxicants; (3) Self-control and calmness.

Though we have above mentioned, yet we are confirming the report to the abstinence from intoxicants and self-control for four reasons: (1), as it relates to health—a struggle for health should be man's chief object, but no one can have a strong and healthy body who is a habitual drunkard.

Plato, one of the great Greek writers, in one of his best known books, "The Republic", and the purpose of the book was to provide for the health of the race, and he looked upon luxury, idleness, dissipation and intemperance as the chief sources of physical ills and unhappiness. He said he noticed the folk would do anything to cure themselves of their ills, but would not stop doing the thing that caused their ill health.

In a recent report of the SIGNAL, a weekly paper published by the WCTU, that three-fourths of all automobile wrecks were caused by those who were driving under the influence of liquor and that three-fourths of them were between the ages of 20 and 30 and that women as well as men and most all crimes could be traced to drinking and habitual drinking had much to do with insanity. And after making a test it was found that folk under the influence of whiskey could not think as readily as those who were not.

Now, for this cause, the A. M. E. church must lift up a standard for the people by fighting this evil and that our motto be that of the song: "Cold water is a cup that cheers, away, away. The bold old alcohol is king of tears away, away; united in a Temperance Band we'll join in heart, we'll join in hand to drive the demon from our land, away, away".

Committee.

J. D. WASHINGTON.

STATE OF THE CHURCH

St. Petersburg, Fla., November 8, 1939.

To the bishop and members of the Conference. Greetings:

We, your committee appointed to prepare the report on The State of the Church, beg leave to report as follows:

Words are like ships. They set out from their docks with one cargo and return with another. They go from port to port changing cargo and crew, but retaining the same name. Words often start out with one meaning and then receive entirely different significance.

The word church is an example of this class. Originally it meant (ecclesia) the separated one; the remnants; those who had broken with the Roman world and its pagan way of living. As time went on the word Church came to mean a strong political organization, then a building and finally a class of people. Perhaps it might be well for us to begin with the question.

What is the Church? Our Christian religion has two elements, worship and service after the manner of Jesus.

Those who believe in Him who want to worship and serve Him, band themselves together for fellowship and inspiration. That group of followers constitute the church universal. It has units everywhere. Originally it had no power, no property, no legal status, in fact, for over 300 years as an institution it was illegal.

It was a forbidden movement in the Roman Empire. It has since become an institution whose constituents embrace one-third of the human race. It owns and controls billions of dollars worth of property, collects and dispenses hundreds of millions of dollars in revenue annually; has hundreds of thousands of paid workers all over the world in addition to millions of volunteer workers; it is the fellowship of the believers in Christ, organized to do His work.

The Church in Action

The Christian church is an organization instituted by Christ for work and service for the good of mankind. And he who would partake of her virtues must be progressive in soul and heart and spirit.

The Church in Conflict

Ever since Christ's advent into the world, the church which is the Lamb's bride, has been and is still the safest place for man. Ever since Christ pitched tent in the enemies' domain, nearly 2000 years ago, there has been a struggle and today the battle is still on. Foes within and foes without. But thanks be to God she is still alive, and very much so. We are praying that God will help us to be true to His Holy cause. We are on the winning side, for God leads on. At this moment the world, shocked at the suffering of the oppressed in Central Europe, both Jews and Christians are being made victims of a vicious religious and political persecution, harrowing details came to us about the separation of children from parents, burning of churches, destruction of homes and businesses and the torture of human beings. And right here in our own home, the enemies of righteousness are at work to destroy the very life of the church, for here we have ignorance of all kinds, racial hatred as well as many isms. May God help us to stand fast into the liberty wherein Christ has made us free and preach Him to all and cry in Death, "Behold, behold, the Lamb, for the Rock Christ Jesus He has built His church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it".

The Church in Florida

Peace, harmony and good-will are still on the upward climb amongst the various branches of the Christian faith. To God be the praise for this spirit of brotherly love.

The A. M. E. Church

The A. M. E. church is still moving onward to the goal of victory inspite of foes that are working night and day trying to defeat her onward march. She still looketh as the morning.

The A. M. E. Church in Florida

Why do we moan departing friends or shake at death's alarms? 'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends to call them to His arms.

Since we met in our last conference which convened in Arcadia, March 7, 1937, the death angel has claimed our Bishop Grant, has taken him to his heavenly home. The church in general has lost one of its greatest leaders. Florida, a friend, true and tried, but brethren, the worker dies, but the work goes on. Bishop Grant fell on the battlefield in the midst of a high anticipation. His mantle fell, but God had a Tookes prepared to catch it and go forth to glorious victory even unto death. The leaders of the church in Florida were a unity of oneness for Bishop Tookes' leadership over them and we shall stand by him, for we as a whole love him, for he is bone of our bone and flesh of our flesh, the church is safe in his hands and we are all happy. The conferences just closed, closed in the midst of glory. We are glad to report that E. W. C. is in good shape. And now brethren, ere we close, may we go down from here with a determination to do our work with a wholeheartedness that the cause of our Zion may not suffer.

And when we come to the end of our journey, carrying the staff and the cross of redemption, our Heavenly Father will understand and say, "Well done".

Faithfully,

R. L. MURRELL.
